

Central Florida Dressage Presents:

A Riding Clinic with Gunnar Østergaard

Gunnar is an internationally renowned trainer and coach with an impressive list of achievements including training over 25 horses and/or riders through Grand Prix. He has won many national championships for himself and his students, competed successfully in Europe, and had many Grand Prix wins at Devon and the USET Festival of Champions. He also served on the USET Planning and Selection Committee in the 1980s and early 1990's. In addition to teaching dressage, Gunnar has also trained Olympic jumping and eventing. Gunnar has a quiet demeanor and an encouraging teaching style which makes him accessible to both beginners and advanced riders alike.
